

BIG GUNS POINTED TOWARDS JUAREZ

Trouble Feared From Villa Soldiers and U. S. Takes Precautions.

EL PASO, Tex., Oct. 30.—Two batteries of American artillery numbering eight guns, were secretly posted after dark Friday night with their muzzles pointing toward Juarez, where a Villa garrison of 1,500 men had given apparently hostile signs toward American troops on border patrol.

The first trainload of the 5,000 troops which Gen. Carranza is sending through the United States from Eagle Pass, Tex., to Agua Prieta, Sonora, was expected to pass through this city soon after midnight. The passage of these troops over American soil to fight Villa in Sonora has angered the Juarez garrison and there is danger of trouble.

All the American soldiers stationed here, about 3,000 men, were ordered out Friday night to guard the railway over which the Carranza trains will pass to prevent Villa supporters from attempting to dynamite the trains.

FUNSTON TO DOUGLAS.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Sec'y of War Garrison Friday decided to send Maj. Gen. Funston to Douglas, Ariz., to take personal command of the 6,000 troops stationed there to prevent aggressions by Mexicans. The Carranza forces are said to have been delayed and it is feared the Villa troops may attack.

Villa is said to be in an ugly mood on account of the recognition of Carranza. This is shown by a notice from Carlos Randall, governor of the state of Sonora, that he will not be responsible for the lives of American citizens.

The Villa troops expected to attack Agua Prieta, just across the border from Douglas, are said to be only 35 miles away.

TO BAR REBEL MONEY.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Venezuelan Carranza, executive of the principal government in Mexico, announced Friday that only paper currency issued by the constitutionalists would be recognized. This means that Villa, Zapata and other paper currency issues were worthless. Acting Minister Nieto announced that the constitutionalists had no present intention of floating a foreign loan. He said that as 62 per cent of the customs receipts are now pledged to meet payments of foreign indebtedness, it was believed that this would be ample.

Payments against Mexico's debt balance will be resumed as soon as the normal revenues begin to flow, he said.

RAIDER LEADER CAPTURED.
HOUSTON, Texas, Oct. 30.—There was a report Wednesday night that Gen. Carranza had captured Luis De La Rosa, reputed leader of the Mexican raiders who have been terrorizing the lower Rio Grande valley for months. In a battle between Carranza troops and the raiders 60 miles from Matamoros it is said that 15 of the raiders were killed.

EXECUTE YOUNG'S SON
Gen. Agramonte, 84 Years Old, Put to Death in Mexico City.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 30.—Gen. C. H. May Agramonte, formerly president of the American colony in Mexico City, was executed in the Mexican capital 10 days ago, according to letters received here Friday. Agramonte was a son of the late Brigham Young and was 84 years old. He was a close friend of Gen. Porfirio Diaz. The charge against Agramonte was not given in the letter.

MANY TROUBLES DUE TO WEAK KIDNEYS

"It is no use advertising a medicine unless the medicine itself is good enough to back up the claims you make for it," said W. K. Wettick, the popular druggist, to a News-Times man. "On the other hand it is a pleasure to sell a medicine when my customers come in afterward and tell me how much good it has done them. And that is why I like to sell and recommend Solvax, the great kidney remedy. Ever since I first introduced Solvax in South Bend my clerks have been busy selling it, that they have a hard time keeping a sufficient stock on hand. I have so much faith in this article that I am going to guarantee it in the future and will return the money to any purchaser of Solvax whom it does not help. This may seem rash but my customers have said so many good words in its favor that I do not expect to have many packages returned."

This shows great faith in Solvax. It really is a most unusual medicine, because it overcomes the worst cases of kidney complaint by removing the cause. It goes straight to the seat of the trouble, it soaks right in and cleans out the kidneys and makes them pass off all the uric acid and poisonous waste matter that lodges in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatic pains; soothes and heals the bladder and quickly ends all such troubles.

Nothing is more uncomfortable or hurts a person's perfect enjoyment of life more than troublesome kidneys and their attending evils. Use Solvax and get your full measure of benefit put of life.—Adv.

"THE ONLY GIRL"

It is said there are tuneful melodies galore in "The Only Girl," which is the latest joint creation of Henry Blossom and Victor Herbert, and which comes to the Oliver theater this afternoon and tonight and tomorrow night. It would require a lot of space, more than is here allotted to set down all the successful plays which have been written by Henry Blossom; and the great volumes of music, the output from the fertile mind of Victor Herbert would fill an ordinary sized room even if compressed into the smallest possible space. Therefore, it can readily be seen that the musical comedy, "The Only Girl," is not of the ordinary kind but of the extraordinary, because it represents the best efforts of two capable men, gentlemen, who have won their well earned reputations by giving to the stage the kind of material that is appreciated by the public. Theatersgoers are not unlike jurors—their verdict is final, and if they like a play it is a success, and if they reject it, that's its finish, whereupon it is taken from view. "The Only Girl" was brought out at the Lyric theater last year and for ten consecutive months it attracted large audiences, in truth until the summer weather made its appearance. There is a beautiful love romance in connection with the play superbly decorated, one might say, with Mr. Herbert's catchy music. It is one continuous round of song and story with tuneful melodies, brilliant dialogue, and excellent acting. The plot is consistent and at no time does interest flag, but at all times it is kept up to the high standard. There are a number of excellent characters in the play, each typifying those in actual life to be found in every community, giving to the play a realism consistent with the surroundings.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Today's pictures at the Auditorium include a two reel Selig wild animal picture entitled "A Sultan of the Desert," written by the well known player Kathlyn Williams and in which she appears in the title role; "Bob's Love Affair," a Biograph comedy drama; "Black Eyes," an Edison comedy; "Old Good for Nuthin," a Vitagraph comedy featuring Bobby Connell, and the Selig weekly of current news showing many scenes of interest. Tomorrow's feature is a two act modern drama entitled "Volcanoes in the Dark." Just two people in the world are aware that Ethel was not Granger's daughter. The two in question were Granger himself, and Rawlins, the kindly old housekeeper, who had been in the widower's employ for years. To add to the mystery, Granger never dreamed that his housekeeper knew that Ethel was not his child. The secret surrounding the circumstances which caused the widower to adopt the infant left at his doorstep, was not recalled until McCall, the scoundrel whose scheme to get Granger in his power succeeded, tried to compel the girl to wed him, then a voice in the dark lays the story bare. "The Inevitable," an Essanay comedy, "A Test of Courage," an episode of the "Hazards of Helen" railroad series, featuring Helen Holmes.

THE ONLY GIRL

AT THE OLIVER.
The Oliver players presented "The Escape" last night for the last time. The company lays off tonight and this afternoon as "The Only Girl" has the booking. Starting with the performance Monday night "The Butterfly on the Wheel" will be the attraction presented by this really clever stock organization. This play has made an international success having been presented in London for a solid year—then it was transferred to New York where it enjoyed unbounded prosperity for six months—to get a little nearer home, at Chicago it had a long run at the Blackstone theater. The plot is one that affords a great deal of thought for all married people—and to those that are approaching the time, when he thinks he can't get along without her, and she ditto. It may change their views, and if not, it will cause them to be a great deal more tolerant of each other's faults than they would have been otherwise.

AT THE COLONIAL.
Pictures of an intensely interesting nature are shown today at the Colonial. "The War Living Isles," an exciting, fascinating story of the Castilian buccaneers, and a fair daughter of the Pilgrims in which—but see the play. Other scenes include romances of the early 17th century when the daring rovers of the Spanish Main held sway. Then, too, there is the story of the Puritans in the new world, for "The War Living Isles" deals in part with the hardships that these iconoclasts were compelled to face. The court of King James, showing the attaches bedecked and plumed in the finest array, is an interesting sidelight connected with the drama. The picture may be seen today at the Colonial.

AT THE LASALLE.
A return engagement will be played today at the LaSalle of the six reel feature, "The Wonderful Adventure." William Farnum, the dramatic star, has a leading role in which he plays two distinct characters. The story deals with adventure in the Alaska gold country. Paramount travel pictures are on the same program.

Sunday's feature introduces Florence LaBadie and Mignon Anderson in a dramatic story, "The Price of Her Silence." A two part comedy will be shown.

AT THE STRAND.
The Strand theater opens tomorrow matinee with a musical comedy entitled, "Hello Girls." The stage has been enlarged, modern dressing rooms placed beneath and preparations made for an extended run for this style of entertainment. Twelve people are employed, including clever comedians, talented principals and attractive girl choruses. Late popular musical specialties will be a feature of each program.

AT THE INDIANA.
Today's program at the Indiana features Alice Joyce in a commercial comedy entitled, "A Business Buccaneer," a three reel Lubin drama, "Destiny's Skein," and two other pictures are also shown.

Sunday's features include the four reel production of "Don Caesar De Bazan" and "Fighting Blood," a D. W. Griffith production of unusual merit.

Thomas F. Swift and company in a comedy sketch and Prince Lai Mon-kim, a Chinese tenor. Two other acts will also be shown.
